

CITY BRIEFS.

Work on the new Union depot will be resumed about April 1.

The present term of the Duluth Yale school closes tomorrow.

The board of trade holds no session tomorrow, it being Good Friday.

M. R. Baldwin has been made a director in the Union Building and Loan association.

There will be a meeting of Duluth jobbers at the Spaulding April 1 to further our jobbing interests.

A paint and varnish shop for the use of the fire department is to be built adjoining engine house No. 1.

Local petitions protesting against proposed navy and mortgage tax laws are quite generally signed.

Chief of Police McQuade is off duty for a few days recovering from an illness which resembles the grip.

Guest Dublin and Annie Olson were today granted permission to travel in the matrimonial harness for life.

The Kelley Island line kili has been obliged to shut down until navigation opens on account of a scarcity of stone.

Residents of the west end are anxious to have the Twentieth avenue depot dumping grounds and its customers overhauled.

W. D. B. Jones has secured a cleared tract on Pike lake, together with house and barn, and will spend a great portion of the summer there.

A union meeting and social by the Sons of Veterans and the Woman's Relief corps was held last night. There was a pleasant evening. Supper was served.

The newslayers of Duluth will be organized this evening into a newslayer union. The boys are all very enthusiastic over the prospect of becoming "union men."

The St. Louis Water tower company is at work with a night force of men.

The ground for the brickyard is being prepared and the plant will be in active operation about June 1.

As will be noted in another column the trustees of the First Methodist church will receive bids for the superstructure of the church up to April 15. Bids for the basement are already called for.

Palatine lodge will give a dance and concert next Wednesday evening, following is the committee on entertainment: J. E. Cooley, D. H. Williams, T. J. Hunter, J. P. Hunter and Edwin Moores.

At the municipal court this morning two drunks paid $12 each, four went up for ten days and one for thirty days, it being his second offense. Frank King was assessed $12 for fighting on the street.

Manitoba wheat is now pouring into Duluth elevators at a rapid rate. Thus far seventy cars have been received here. Before navigation opens 200 cars, or 130,000 bushels, will be awaiting shipment from here.

Among the buildings on which Architect A. F. Radtke is working is the new Northern National bank building of Ashland, Wis., a pressed brick and stone structure to cost $60,000. The building will go up this spring.

At a meeting of Duluth Typographical union, No. 198, last evening, Henry Dvorak was elected delegate to the International Typographical convention, which assembles in Boston next June. His election is a deserved compliment.

Col. C. H. Graves, who is in Washington, says that if the proposed South Superior improvement company to secure judgments against Neil Smith, John Keough and L. E. Christy, for subscription of these fun-makers and company that they would be pleased to see the removal of the La Belle wagon works to Superior have been begun. These are cases and their results will determine a number of other disputes over the same matter.

The answer set up by the defendants was that the money was subscribed upon the representation that the general offices were to be located at the east side. The matter will be carried by the east side to the supreme court if necessary. There is quite a number of claims against other parties on the same ground.

Evans and Hoey.

Of those excellent comedians, Evans and Hoey, who will appear Monday and Tuesday evenings, presenting "A Parlor Match," the Chicago Herald says: "Evans and Hoey might count upon becoming millionaires could they attract nightly such a crowd as that. The theater was packed, even the aisles being blocked. This is all the testimony to the popularity of these fun-makers and company that need be offered. Evans and Hoey have done a great deal to win the confidence and secure the approbation of the public. Theirs are amusing in their respective ways—Hoey, indeed, is one of the funniest of the grotesque comedians—and they keep their performance up to a standard of merit."

The Prostrating Shookles.

Of malaria fever are not to be counteracted by quinine with any degree of certainty, or for any length of time. The eradication and prevention of disease of a malarial type are, however, ascertained possibilities. Long experience has shown that there is infinitely more preventive efficiency in the fine botanic medicine, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, than in the alkaloids, drugs and poisons which were formerly the only recognized means of removing and anticipating attacks of fever and ague and bilious remittent. When the system has been depleted by periodically recurring paroxysms this agreeable restorative renews the fund of energy, and is not only a positive specific, but repairs the damage to the general health indicated by all febrile complaints partaking of the malarial character.

The first engines of this class for the Northern Pacific were built in 1888 and since that time the road has bought twenty-four engines of this type, with eight now ordered.

Test Cases on Bonuses.

Proceedings preliminary to the trial of actions brought by the South Superior improvement company to secure judgments against Neil Smith, John Keough and L. E. Christy, for subscription of these fun-makers and company that they would be pleased to see the removal of the La Belle wagon works to Superior have been begun. These are cases and their results will determine a number of other disputes over the same matter.

DULUTH WHEAT.

The Market Dull but Rather Firm all Day.

Wheat early assumed a holiday character, ruling for the greater part of the day dull, though prices kept pretty firm. At the opening, which was late above yesterday's close, the feeling was firm and there was some demand here, but not much, and the trading for the day was very small. Just before the close the market weakened again and closed with sellers at the lowest point of the day. Cash 1 hard was neglected. Regular in store closed at $1.00 3/4. Cash 1 northern, regular in closed at 97 3/4. Car lots on track sold at $1. Cash 2 northern, regular in store closed at 94 3/4. May 1 hard was dull and neglected. It opened at $1.05 and closed at $1.04 1/2 sellers. May 1 northern opened at $1.02, declined to $1.01 1/4, recovered 1/4, declined and closed at $1.01 1/2 sellers. June 1 hard closed at $1.05 1/4 sellers and No. 1 northern at $1.02 1/2 sellers.

Boys' and Children's Department—

There was a time when almost anything was regarded as being good enough for boys, but that time has passed. Almost every mother looks upon her son as a possible President, and our ideas on the subject of the rising generation have undergone a complete change. Formerly anything was good enough for the boy; now nothing is too good for him. Perhaps the "Little Lord Fauntleroy" craze did go a trifle too far, but it was a movement in the right direction. Between that craze and the other extreme is a happy medium, and if mothers want to strike that medium, purchase for your boy one of our celebrated 85 School Suits, the best School Suit in the world for the money. Now, mothers, if we have not dressed your boys for Easter bring them in tomorrow, we are sure to suit them.

A NEXT PRESIDENT

McKinley, of Tariff Fame, Wants to be Governor of Ohio and Then President.

While President Harrison Himself, of Course, Wants and is Working for a Second Term.

Presidential Gossip as it is Given This Evening in Washington Papers.

WASHINGTON, March 27.—The Evening Star publishes the following gossip concerning the relative prospects of Mr. Harrison and Mr. McKinley as Presidential possibilities.

McKinley is understood to be making a very bold strike to put himself in the line of succession to President Harrison, while the latter is disposed to succeed himself. There is a very interesting game between them for the honors. The Ohio statesman is said to have laid out a campaign for himself which, unless he is less sanguine than his close friends are, he expects will lead him to the White House. McKinley is as certain as anyone can be in advance of the happening to be the republican candidate for governor of Ohio. His friends say that while local issues will enter into his canvass for the governorship, the feature of the campaign will be his mastery defense of the tariff law which bears his name.

From this time forward until another defeat or perceptive victory has made further struggle unnecessary or fruitless, he proposes to conduct a crusade in behalf of that office, which gives him a footing of immense pride. If he is nominated for governor he will make a close canvass of the state, besides accepting such invitations as seem promising to speak elsewhere, always preaching the doctrine of protection and still more protection after the McKinley plan.

He wants to be elected governor on that issue, and to his untiring efforts to base his claim upon the party for higher honors. He is said to believe that he is strong enough, and that the cause is good enough to overcome all the prejudice the democrats have excited against the measure, and he is going to set himself about doing it. Having made that aggressive step in the Ohio election, he will fall he proposes to hold the republican party up to the line and keep that as the one great issue of the presidential campaign in 1892. He is competent and sanguine.

His speech in Boston is but the first of a number he expects to make wherever occasion offers. It is possible that the republican convention in Ohio will be held early in June, and McKinley is nominated the campaign will begin at once. It will be unlike a state campaign, inasmuch as it will be conducted on a national scale, and the credit for a direct bearing on the presidential election to follow in another year. Mr. Harrison is said to be not disposed to let McKinley take all the credit for the tariff legislation of the Fifty-first congress or for the rest of this work, but would give credit to the administration, and the "administration" took a very important part in making that legislation possible. He is said to be determined to have his share of credit for the tariff legislation at the risk of having some of these heavy responsibilities fall on him.

A LAWYER'S BEQUEST.

Establishes a Civil Rights Bureau For His Race.

PHILADELPHIA, March 27.—The will of the late John D. Lewis, a colored member of the Philadelphia bar, was admitted to probate here today. He left an estate valued at $100,000, and after bequests to his widow and two children, he left the balance to trustees to be used for the benefit of civil rights, its object being to aid and protect the colored citizens of the United States, and to secure the same civil rights as enjoyed by all other classes of American citizens.

Ex-Lieutenant of Police Alex. Skilton, who was arrested last night for stealing letters from the postoffice, where he was a disturber, was given a hearing today and the evidence produced was conclusive enough of guilt to warrant United States Commissioner Bell in holding him for the court and increasing his bail from $15,000 to $25,000.

NEGROES EAGER FOR EDUCATION.

NEW ORLEANS, March 27.—The New Orleans University for Colored Youth is making arrangements to erect additional buildings. The university is supported by the Methodist church. It was intended to hold 500 students, but the demands on it have been far beyond expectations. Over 600 students, all colored, applied for admission in the present session. The college did the best it could and admitted 553. Almost 100 who desired admission had to be sent away for lack of room. The additional buildings will provide for 300 or 400 more students. It is believed that with these new buildings the university will have from 800 to 900 matriculants. Besides the New Orleans university, the colored people of this city have three colleges, all crowded. They are the Leland university, supported by the Baptist church; Straight university, supported by the Congregationalists; and the Southern university, supported by the state of Louisiana. These four colleges already contain 1870 negro students.

DO THEIR OWN PUNISHING.

OTTAWA, Ont., March 27.—The Chinese in British Columbia are administering punishment under their own ordinance and according to their own civil and criminal code. Criminals have been tried under their code and secretly beheaded, unknown to the local authorities. Many Chinese are thus dealt with on the Pacific coast. It is almost impossible to secure evidence to convict them under Dominion law, as it means death for any of them to reveal what goes on in their own tribunals.

MINNESOTA'S APPLICATION.

WASHINGTON, March 27.—The application for Minnesota's share of the direct grant, $22,245, has been received at the treasury department.

A PARCIVAL MEETING.

Mass Meeting of Italians in London.

LONDON, March 27.—The much vaunted meeting of Italians at Holborn hall last night to protest against the lynching of their countryman at New Orleans was the most farcical affair imaginable. At 8 o'clock fifteen men and two old women were present, besides about a dozen reporters. At 8:45 the gathering had swollen to sixty persons, who were surprisingly mute. The speakers thumped their chests and pranced wildly about the platform, but the attenuated audience preserved the mute demeanor which had characterized it from the first.

The resolutions and speeches were all in Italian, which were translated to his colleagues by Reporter Contes, the only one of the newspaper contingent present familiar with the language. Despite this disadvantage, the speakers were the only ones in the hall who cheered the speeches or voted on the resolutions.

WAR IN CONNECTICUT.

No Progress in the Settlement of Dispute.

HARTFORD, Conn., March 27.—There has been no progress today towards a settlement of the dispute over state officers. Comptroller Stob was ready to spring upon the legislature the announcement that if the recess is taken, as talked of in the house, the state will be under obligation to pay the railroad $4000 each month as long as the recess lasts, no matter if it is until next November, since the railroad has the right to use the state's money until adjustment.

Deputy Sheriff Moore served papers on Stob today in the suit of Austin Brainers, executive secretary of "Acting Governor" Bulkeley, for the payment of his salary. The writ of mandamus is signed by Clerk Johnson, the superior court, and is made returnable to the court on the first Tuesday in April.

WINDOM'S WILL.

He Makes No Bequests Outside of His Immediate Family.

NEW YORK, March 27.—The will of the late secretary of the treasury, William Windom, was offered for probate here today. One-third of all property of deceased, after paying his debts, is left to his widow, who is made sole executrix. The balance is to be his children's, subject to three years' sole control of their mother. After that she is to act as trustee for them for a period of twenty years. The property is to be divided among the surviving children and to their surviving heirs. In the event of Mrs. Windom's death, the property is to be divided among the children.

A WALL STREET OPINION.

Factors Tending to Check the Outward Movement of Gold.

NEW YORK, March 27.—A large Wall Street operator is thus quoted: "Just now a lot of rich men who deal in stocks are in the South, but they will soon be here. I understand Flagler will return North early next month. The crop prospects are good, and the outlook for winter wheat soon begin to be a big factor in stocks."

"Commercial bills have been plentiful in the exchange market, and this, with the weakening of Chicago prices, will have a tendency to check the movement of gold this week."

WILL NOT HIRE KNIGHTS.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., March 27.—The refusal of the clothing manufacturers to hire Knights of Labor has created considerable discussion here. In explanation of their position the manufacturers issue a manifesto in which they say they are convinced that the branch of Knights of Labor, which includes the clothing industry of Rochester, has been directed by a set of unscrupulous men who serve their own interests regardless of anything else. They have terrorized their followers and have also attempted to terrorize the honest and law-abiding members of the branch. They have compelled us to rise up and take this step.

A HIGH LIFE SCANDAL "HUSHED."

LONDON, March 27.—The friends of Earl Russell, whose wife has brought action against him for divorce, alleging cruel treatment, have succeeded in hush-ing up the scandal which the case would have provoked, by bringing about a settlement, to which the parties have agreed. The countess is to receive an allowance of £5000 per year and will nominally live with her husband.

ITALY'S DEMAND.

ROME, March 25.—It is alleged that the Italian government, without discussing the status of the New Orleans prisoners, maintains that as prisoners they were entitled to be defended while in prison in Italy, and that the Italian government was not so defended; therefore, the Italian government will formally demand the punishment of the Italian leaders and indemnity for the families of the men slain.

LAWYERS HUSTLE.

The New Five Term Bill Makes a Session of District Court Convene Next Month.

And Lawyers Interested Must Get in Their Cases by Next Week Monday.

Judge Stearns Talks on a Third Judge and the Business of this District.

The May term of court has been abolished. Yesterday the senate passed the bill drafted by the house providing for five terms a year in this district. Judge Stearns thinks that the governor will sign the bill today. The bill provides that the next term of court will open on April 7.

This will make it necessary for attorneys to give notice of trial next Monday at the latest. The time from now until then is so short that but few cases can be put on the docket, and consequently the coming term will be the shortest Duluth has seen in many a year. Judge Stearns thinks that nearly all of the cases will be old ones continued over from last term.

"I don't know," said his honor, "whether we are going to be successful in getting an additional judge this year. I feel sure that the legislature appreciates how badly we need an additional judge in this district, but it thinks, and rightly too, that the present one is doing his duty to the state. You see most of the Southern and Southwestern districts are having less litigation year by year. Now, if they would only re-district the state, the problem might be satisfactorily solved. There has been some talk of consolidating the Fifteenth district, presided over by Judge Holland, with ours, for the reason that there is very little business in that district. Thus we could get an additional judge. This would be a good proposition were Judge Holland in good health; but as things go would give us more work. I think a good plan, if they don't want to appoint an additional judge, would be to arrange for some of the young judges who are out of the state where business is small to come up here when unoccupied and help us out. There are many of them who would be very glad to get experience in our city."

"There is hardly another district in the state that has more business than ours. Take Ramsey county for instance. It has a population three times as large as ours and three times as many judges; but we do more business here. Our interests are more diversified and we have a larger amount of litigation. These lumber interests will furnish very much of our business. Our interests, with their peculiar litigations, and the numerous manufacturing interests, all of which are practically in our infancy. When Judge Stearns came up here last term he said he wanted to do more work, but when he went away he declared he would never return. He is a bitter enemy to the state as hard and as steadily as we do in this district. He is firm in the belief that we need help here badly."

DANA ON TOUR.

Comment by the Editor on His Trip Through the South.

ATLANTA, Ga., March 27.—C. A. Dana and party passed yesterday in this city. In an interview he talked of the Mafia, saying that such a secret society cannot exist in America; "because," he said, "Italians get fed in this country. They get no beef in Italy."

Mr. Dana said that Cleveland, if nominated, would lose New York by 50,000 votes. He was glad about the outlook for the new year, and he believed that the farmers alliance is an important element in the question. It depends on the amount of damage they will do the republican party in the West and the democratic party in the South. Now the farmers alliance in the south proposes to be a terror. It is a terror to the negro question. That dominates everything here.

"There is no such a balance wheel in the West, and the alliance is bitter against the republican party. They came from that party, and you know when a member of an organization has left it he is more bitter against it than the original opponents. If the farmers alliance in the South should grow to such proportions that the negro question would be a serious one, it would then smash the democratic party as far as it could."

"The farmers alliance is really as antagonistic to democratic principles as anything in the land. It is a socialistic organization seeking to establish an aristocracy of farmers, endowed with privileges which nobody else will have. It seeks special privileges for a class, and the methods by which it proposes to attain these ends are socialistic as the ends themselves."

"This plain talk is something you don't see down here, I suppose; the politicians are all trucking to the farmers alliance. In dealing with the questions raised by the alliance the Georgia politicians are the most cowardly set in the United States. One thing is certain, the farmers alliance will run its course and die. It is not founded on any broad principle of human nature or of scientific politics."

He said in conclusion: "Now if you can tell which party the alliance will hurt the most I will tell you which one is likely to be beaten in 1892."

A West End Entertainment. A quartet of little girls at the west end have been conducting a Bible class every Saturday afternoon at Mrs. Close's on New street, near Eighteenth avenue west. The members are all mere children, and the teachers' ages range from 9 to 15 years.

Yesterday the youthful instructors gave an entertainment at Mrs. Close's. The participants being the little students. Everything passed off smoothly. The teachers are Addie Hammond, Maggie Close, Enie McKay and Lula Brown. The following program was carried out: Singing by the class; reading, Alma Birgling; America (sung in Swedish), Axel Birgling; recitation and song, Reuben Close; recitation and song, Eleanor Close; recitation and song, Alice Elquist.

Amie Carnell, Willie Blomquist, Wendell Carnell; song, Annie Steiger; reading, Maggie Close; singing by chorus. There are some twenty scholars.

There's Nothing in It. A local paper refers to City Engineer Fuller as an authority for the statement that there was a likelihood of the council's duplicating the existing water plant. There's nothing in it, beyond the fact that some aldermen once asked Mr. Fuller for the addresses of a few eminent hydraulic engineers. It is much easier to lay a water plant through Duluth rock on paper than it is to raise the funds. It has taken many years to give us the present system, such as it is, and the talk of duplicating it is a piece of nonsense.

A Card to Mr. Harrison. In answer to your questions in this morning's Tribune, I do not propose to use the newspapers to air the trouble between The Herald and yourself. If you have any right or title to The Herald or any part of it, the court is the proper place to appeal to. No one will be more ready to turn over to you what belongs to you than I. I do not feel called upon, by any part of it, to answer promiscuous and impertinent questions in the papers. Emil Schmitt.

The Frostrating Shocks. Of malaria fever are not to be counteracted by quinine with any degree of certainty, or for any length of time. The eradication and prevention of disease is a misnamed type are, however, ascertained possibilities. Long experience has shown that there is infinitely more preventive efficacy in the fine botanic medicine, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, than in the alkaloids, drugs and poisons which were formerly the only recognized means of removing and anticipating attacks of fever and ague and bilious remittent. When the system has been depleted by periodically recurring paroxysms, this agreeable restorative renews the fund of energy, and is not only a positive specific, but repairs the damage to the general health inflicted by all febrile complaints partaking of the malarial character.

HAVE THEY SKIPPED?

Rumor Says Yes, but Individuals Say Not Much.

It has been currently reported that James Warnock, formerly proprietor of a feed store at the west end, and a member of the city board of fire commissioners, and left for parts unknown, taking with him as company Geo. W. Hathaway, of the hardware firm of Melning & Hathaway, who do business on Superior street near Sixth avenue west.

Apparently the stories are incorrect, though there are undoubtedly suspicious circumstances connected with their departure. Warnock about a week ago sold his business and two or three days ago left town, ostensibly to Seattle. With him went Hathaway. Mr. Melning, who is Hathaway's partner, states that he received a few days ago a telegram stating that his mother was very ill. He left for home, for the southern part of the state. No more definite information can be gained of his whereabouts.

The two men went together, and this fact, says John Melning, started the rumor that they had skipped to pastures green.

A Pleasant Event. The State University Glee and Banjo clubs, consisting of a fine-looking set of young gentlemen as ever graced a set in this city, entertained a good-sized audience last evening at Temple Opera. The university boys sang with an enthusiasm that is necessary to the success of most college songs, and the audience was so well pleased that not less than one encore was called for by any number rendered.

Martin Watrous and Harry Gearhart, of this city, were given solo parts and pleased their many friends. Mr. Gile on his banjo and guitar and Mr. White in his tenor solo were justly entitled to the applause that was showered upon them. The glee club is quite evenly balanced and has shown careful training, and the Banjo club does much to relieve the program of the sameness that characterized glee club concerts heretofore.

Mr. H. S. Woodruff's whistling, accompanied by his own piano playing, was nothing short of novel, and able, and will long prove a pleasant memory to those who heard it. The concert tour of a college glee club is one of the pleasantest events in the student life, which, though devoted to hard work, is a most jolly one. The clubs go from here to Eau Claire, where they will appear tonight.

NEW JAPANESE INFLUX. Steamers Carrying Immigrants to California from Yokohama.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 27.—The bodies of Japanese laborers that are now immigrating to California, where they are employed in the vineyards, appear to be the immigrants of a larger force. From forty to sixty of them are aboard every steamer that has arrived from Yokohama, and there are many thousands coming. They are needed here to try life in foreign lands, and to be needed; but the Chinese are the immigrants of a larger force. It would be easy for 100,000 to find remunerative employment in California, Oregon and Washington.

There is no steam stream of European immigrants to California or of other Pacific states as there is to the Eastern states. China stands ready to furnish as many as she can be needed; but the Chinese are the immigrants of a larger force. INTERESTING TO LAND TRANSFERREES.

A circumstance that possesses some interest for Minnesota and all other states that are thinking of a simplification of land transfer systems, is that the system of block indexing in land transfers which, since January 1, has been in operation in New York, is probably to be strengthened and extended. The law, which was passed last year, provided for indexing instruments recorded after January 1 only. But a new bill provides that the indexing system shall be applied to prior records, and that all liens on real estate which may have been recorded prior to the present year shall be reindexed according to the same system. The bill creates a commission to supervise the work, which is expected to occupy two or three years for completion.

The introduction of this bill, and the general favor with which it seems to be received by persons most interested, is pretty good proof that the new system is justifying all that has been predicted for it. The testimony of the New York Times on this point is valuable. It says: "No one now talks of block indexing as an experiment, for it has worked with perfect success. It provides such facilities for real estate searches that among its most ardent supporters are some who opposed it strenuously during the last year. There seems now to be a probability that block indexing will come into use in every city department for all kinds of business."

Doubtless among the reforms to be instituted will be a law to compel all future indexing of liens to be conducted upon the block plan. When this shall be brought about, searching for liens on real estate as now conducted will be practically at an end. All that a person will need to do to know what instruments may have been recorded affecting a particular piece of property will be to look under the index of the block in which the property is situated. With the assistance of names the work of referring to the transfers and liens will be what it ordinarily is in examining for transfers on a stock-transfer book.

A system which in its beginnings has accomplished such good results as this New York system has done is certainly as likely to meet the condition demanded in the talked of transfer reform in this state as a system that originated in Canada.

THE BUSINESS SITUATION.

Special telegrams to Bradstreet, published today in New York, indicate that the past week has been marked by continued interruption to the development of general trade. Trade west and north-west was heavy. Further west heavy snow storms have blocked railroad traffic, and the result has been a relative quiet in many lines at Kansas City, St. Louis, St. Joseph, Omaha, Minneapolis, Duluth, Milwaukee and Chicago. Cincinnati reports rains and high water at the South and an unfavorable effect on Southern markets. New Orleans merchants express the belief that the damage done by floods in regions tributary to that city have been over-estimated.

The demand for wheat from the west coast of South America is becoming noticeable at San Francisco. In manufacturing lines no improvement is reported. Iron is barely firm. Coal opens twenty-five to forty cents lower, nominally, prices having been so low of late that the schedule cuts amount to nothing and the demand is not equal to expectations. Woolen manufacturers are working on orders. Dry goods generally are in light demand. Wool is quiet, foreign and territory being in chief demand. Cotton holds up well in the face of an immense movement.

Business failures in the United States number 200, against 179 last week and 189 this week last year. The total from Jan. 1 to date is 3322, against 3346 last year. In Canada is comparatively quiet, but more active than a fortnight ago. Collections are disappointing. Groceries are perhaps in relatively more active demand. The Dominion reports 41 business failures this week, against 28 last week and 29 this week last year. The total number from Jan. 1 to date is 550, against 545 last year.

THE RIGHT MOVE.

Duluth bankers are moving in the right direction when they take steps looking toward a more careful supervision of the business of private banks by the state authorities. Aside from more important than the fact that the more legitimate banking institutions are met by unfair competition from institutions that have no fear of inspection and control, is the further fact that in private banks as at present guarded there is not the slightest protection for the depositor, other than the honor or ability of the banker. That these are not sufficient guarantees is well evidenced by the disastrous Kean failure in Chicago, and the equally disastrous, though smaller, Hall failure in Duluth, as well as by dozens of other cases.

The movement toward the abolition of the strictly "private" bank has been growing ever since the failure of Mr. Kean and the state that does not protect the savings of its people, as well as the reputation of its legitimate banking institutions, will be behind its sisters.

The formal closing of the water power deal will result in the realization of the fondest dream of Jay Cooke, who first discovered the great abilities of the water power of the St. Louis river, and who, in 1869, purchased the 4000 acres on both sides of the river, now owned by the company. His failure in 1873 destroyed all hope of the use of this great resource of nature, capable of being made to contribute so much towards the industrial development of the surrounding country, for a long period. It seems now that what was considered an idle boast of this wealthy far sighted man is about to be fulfilled. He often proclaimed that the St. Louis water power would move the greater portion of the machinery of the largest manufacturing city in the interior of the continent. If this water power can perform the work planned out for it with so much confidence, it is not extravagant to believe that it will one day furnish light for the people of this city at a much cheaper rate than they are now forced to pay, furnish the power for street railways and make the banks of the St. Louis rival those of the Merrimac in regard to the number of manufacturing establishments located on them.

Our friend the Marquette Journal, which interests itself a good deal in head of the lake affairs, seems to have a good grasp of the present newspaper situation here. It says: "The old Duluth Herald company is still in the field, despite the sale of a plant it owned under the sheriff's hammer, and is publishing The Herald right along, using for that purpose the press and material of the defunct Times. The parties who bought in the old plant at the forced sale last week found that they had not secured the good will, subscription list, or the right to use the name of The Herald, and are now issuing an evening paper called the Post, which they insist is the successor of the late Herald. But as The Herald is in about the state of the fishman whose wake was being held and who rose up when the fun became fast and furious with the startling inquiry on his sabbath, 'Bad luck to yer sows, do yer think I'm dead?' the claim of the Post does not seem to be altogether warranted by the circumstances."

Duluth has been having somewhat of a tussle with the grip the past week or two, but we have been fortunate compared with others. Minneapolis has fared much worse, Chicago has been bereft, and Pittsburgh, Alleghany and New York have suffered worse than either. The Pittsburgh papers say that the effect of the epidemic of grip on the real estate market has been as bad as a panic. When the grip can keep a real estate agent from trading on a rising market it has got a pretty tight hold.

The News, in a leading editorial concerning the prison twine contract and M. O. Hall this morning, appears to have receded from its position of opposition, and to have come to The Herald's idea that an official should not be called a thief because he is attempting to save the state some money. What kind of a divide would $1693 make among five men of wealth and position?

If Dr. Holman's eloquent lecture on marriage, given last night, doesn't cut down the number of eligible—but unmarried—young men and women in Duluth, it will be because they were not present.

Such Things Have Happened.

Duluth News: The courts have not yet decided whether Maj. Edwards or J. J. Hill owns the Fargo Argus. A horrible suspicion haunts us that the attorney who drew that mortgage must have left out some important words in the instrument.

A Doggone Scheme.
Ashland Press: A rumor is current that a man named McDonald, residing at Dogwood, had leased the ground at the rear of the land office for the time being for the purpose of erecting a building on the Omaha lands were to be made. His intention is to erect a high board fence leading to the window and charge admission to get inside.

Saving Money for the State.

To the editor of The Herald:
When in St. Paul during the February meeting of the board of inspectors a matter came up for consideration in which the state finances were being carelessly blown into the air, and this shows the incompetence of an engineer who did not understand his business, but who was backed by an official of self-assumed dignity, who told the inspectors "it was none of their business."
Mr. M. O. Hall was in St. Paul at the time; he was posted about this matter. With a tact coming from continued experience in finance, he quietly sat down on the dignified gentleman who wore a white cloak, and informed him that the state did not protect such incompetency. The inspectors were doing their duty in bringing this matter before the board of managers of the state prison.

SEEN AND HEARD.

"Rumors from the East regarding the ore trade are many and various," remarked a vessel agent last evening, "but we don't pay much attention to them. Here is a corker for you, young man," and the gentleman produced a message to the effect that "rumor has it that leading ore companies are combining with a view of delaying all shipments of ore until July 1. Nearly 3,000,000 tons are still on Lake Erie docks, and it is proposed to move this before a single charter is made." This sounds decidedly mournful and ought to be construed as a bear report. The fact is there's not over 1,000,000 tons on Lake Erie docks.

It is reported that the two sons of Senator Fair of Colorado have been cured of intemperance by hypnotism. It is to be regretted that all of those marvelous occurrences invariably happen "recently" and are never heard from again. A bureau of later information would be of the greatest service to the public, to science and to morals. Such a bureau would issue reports of hypnotic cures, vast legacies to famishing sewing women, faith-healing miracles etc., six months, say, from the time of the first report. Then the thief to know how these strange things panned out could be satisfied.

Speaking of cures for intemperance makes me think of the chloride of gold of Professor Keeley which so many Duluth people have tried successfully. Dr. Keeley has 5000 cures to his credit in the past five years, besides a few unfortunate who have had far less. Their will power that they could not refrain from again acquiring the drink appetite. The Duluth men who have started a sanitarium on the Keeley plan and under Keeley auspices at White Plains, N. Y., tell me they are doing well and are getting nicely started there. Isn't it likely that the Keeley cure will be a greater boon to the human race than all the apostles of temperance who ever lived? It is believed it is.

Chances.
Of all men on the earth, the American is the most hopeful, energetic and self-reliant. As he would phrase it, he is a "chance" and all he wants is a chance. But the United States is now, more than ever, a country of good chances and great opportunities, not alone in the West, but South and Southwest. The Mississippi valley, the Rocky Mountain regions, the golden Pacific Coast and the sunny plains of the South, are full of chances for ambitious young men, who are not afraid to work hard. To visit any of these sections of our country, "The Burlington" has long been the favorite route, reaching as it does the most important points in nine of the best states and territories in the center of the continent, and by connecting lines being the short and direct route to all points, from Puget Sound to the Gulf of Mexico. Wherever you think of going, apply first for tickets to some agent of "The Burlington," or write for information to W. J. C. Kenyon, Gen. Pass. Agent, C. B. & N. R. R., St. Paul, Minn.

The Frothing Shocks

Of malaria fever are not to be counteracted by quinine with any degree of certainty, or for any length of time. The eradication and prevention of diseases of a miasmatic type are, however, ascertained possibilities. Long experience has shown that there is infinitely more preventive efficacy in the fine botanic medicine, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, than in the alkaloids, drugs and poisons which were formerly the only recognized means of removing and anticipating attacks of fever and ague and bilious remittent. When the system has been depleted by periodically recurring paroxysms, this agreeable restorative cures the fund of energy, and is not only a positive specific, but repairs the damage to the general health inflicted by all febrile complaints partaking of the miasmatic character.

Wheat.

The market is a surprise to the bears today.

The week closes with a dull, yet very firm market. In the earlier part of the week there was a very strong movement and prices reached a point 3½¢ above last Saturday's close. This strength was followed by a downward movement up to Thursday, when the close was 3½¢ below Saturday's highest. Today's market opened unchanged from Thursday's close, strengthened up and advanced 1½¢. Local receipts for the week have been about 215,000 bu., of which 30,000 bu. have gone to the mills, while shipments have been from 75,000 to 85,000 bu. These figures indicate an increase of from 100,000 to 110,000 bu. in the amount in store. Figures on the probable decrease in the visible from 200,000 to 300,000 bu. The last hour of the session was very dull, the wheat closed strong at the highest figures of the day.

Cash 1 hard: Regular closed without sales at $1.02. Cash 2 northern: Regular closed at 99¢; car lots of fresh sold at $1.00½. Cash 2 northern: Regular closed at 96¢. May 1 hard was dull. It opened at $1.04½, advanced and closed at $1.05½, advanced to the close at $1.02½ sellers. June 1 hard closed at $1.06½ sellers, and No. 1 northern at $1.05½ sellers.

DULUTH, March 30.—Local forecast for Duluth and vicinity for twenty-four hours ending at 5 a. m., March 31: Rain or snow; cooler.

Sergeant Signal Corps.

A SWEEPING DECISION.

Since 1884 the several city councils of Duluth have annually turned over to the Duluth Gas and Water company "guaranty sums" averaging nearly $25,000 a year, under a provision of the company's franchise, as follows: "If at any time it shall appear that the company, by extending its mains, will receive an additional revenue of not less than $100 per annum for the sale of gas and water for every 200 feet of such extension, either from customers or from the rental of fire hydrants, the village may by resolution require the extension made."

Successive city attorneys have allowed this payment, which has amounted in the aggregate to about $150,000, while the water company has never refused to accept it. It remained for City Attorney Allen a few months ago to discover what he thought was so gross an irregularity in these guaranties as to vitiate the contract calling for the payment, and on his advice the council refused to pay. Suit was at once brought and Judge Stearns' decision, handed down Saturday afternoon, fully sustains Mr. Allen's opinion and makes one of the most important decisions ever made in Duluth matters. The full bearing of this decision can hardly be realized on first thought, but is fully explained on another page.

City Attorney Allen deserves the thanks and praise of all Duluth, not only for this notable victory, but for many an other wise and economical step taken by him.

SOME USE FOR MEN.

Mrs. Frank Leslie's ideas as to the details of the institution for the benefit of working women, to found which she intends to leave the bulk of her estate of $600,000, are crystallizing. Here is an account of the form that her beneficence is to take, which she communicated to Kate Field, and which appears in an interesting article in last week's issue of Miss Field's sprightly paper, Washington.

"It will be a club house for women, with baths and gymnasium, as I believe in physical culture. The ground floor will be devoted to a restaurant, where everything will be sold at cost price. On the first floor will be parlors, a library of reference for female journalists, and rooms for the Women's Press club and other associations. There will be a fine lecture hall for scientific, literary and artistic purposes; also an exhibition hall, where every spring and autumn there will be an exhibition of woman's work. The top floor will be devoted to studies, let to women at the lowest possible price."

"What if there be a restaurant?"

"It will be used for founding scholarships to send women abroad to study art."

"How will this trust be administered?"

"By a board of trustees—two women and three men; the women to suggest and the men to execute."

It is interesting to note that the laboring men of the institution is to be pulled by men. Mrs. Leslie is a sagacious and successful business manager, and while sincerely desirous of helping women who are discriminating enough to perceive that there are some kinds of work—involving steadiness and discretion—in which the average woman is less likely to succeed than the average man.

LET US HAVE A NAME.

Nearly a dozen vessels of the new navy have a local habitation but no name. They are under construction, but most of them are known thus far only by numbers. It has remained for Secretary Tracy to pick out names under the law it stands. There are ready for this purpose the two 3000-ton vessels building at Norfolk and New York; the three 2000-ton vessels; the two 1000-ton gunboats and the Naval Academy practice ship. Then there are the 5500-ton ship at San Francisco, and the triple-screw cruiser No. 12, with its 22-knot speed. There have been many urgent requests from cities all over the country to be remembered in the naming of cruisers and battle ships, and many of those cities are in no way so deserving as Duluth, with its big share of the marine commerce of the nation. Let us have a cruiser, Mr. Secretary, and we will gladly furnish the service of plates or the library that custom requires.

It is announced that Superior is at last to have the pure and wholesome water that the water company is to furnish from the shore of Minnesota Point. Referring to this the Superior Leader says: "It is possible that the company and the reporters know what they are talking about, but it will be as well for the council to take nothing for granted. There are very many people who affect the belief that a steady supply of pure water cannot be obtained from any available point immediately in front of the city, and a thorough test of that which is soon to be pumped through the pipes should be instituted now, and once again when the ice is out of the bay and river and the currents running through the Duluth canal and the entry to Superior bay. Still another test will be in order when, after the opening of navigation, a strong northeast wind will hold in check or divert from their natural course out into the lake, the currents referred to, as they will be, with the filthy sewage of three cities." West Duluth has contracted for a supply of water from this source and expects to get it the coming summer. Neither place will for long be satisfied with the supply, there will soon come a time of tribulation and earnest protests, and the company will be forced to "extend the intake," which will inaugurate a long fight against corporate greed. And Superior is in poorer shape than Duluth to combat this many-headed corporation, for it is closer in its toils. Why cannot the water for all three cities be obtained from some one unquestionable source of supply, either down the north shore or back of Duluth? Why cannot individual rivalries be dropped and concerted action taken, now?

The signal service is an important factor in the lake marine, and vessel owners in such ports as Cleveland, Buffalo, Chicago, Milwaukee and Duluth should see to it that their secure officers authorized to give out local weather forecasts under the change about to take place in that service, says the Marine Review. In accordance with a law passed by the last congress, the signal service becomes a part of the agricultural department of the government, and in only twenty cities of the country will local officers be permitted to make local forecasts. The principal lake cities should apply for the benefits to be derived from these special officers. It would be well for Duluth's chamber of commerce to see whether Officer Fallon, who is a "local forecast officer," is to stay here, or whether an inferior in-un is likely to take his place. Because Mr. Fallon's location at the westernmost lake port its observations are of the utmost importance, and it is the hope of marine men and all thrown in contact with the signal service that Mr. Fallon may remain.

The Michigan mine tax bill, which would, if passed, have legislated the iron interests of a great state out of existence, has been defeated. It is a fortunate thing for the Northwestern states that this bill, which could only be the result of ignorance or prejudice, has received a quietus. It is, however, an unfortunate thing that this matter has been stirred up, for it will undoubtedly retard development. Like the Minnesota mining tax and surety bills, it seemed admirably in unsetting confidence.

Senator Daugherty has introduced in the upper house a bill to prevent the saw mills on the St. Louis river from dumping sawdust and other garbage into the stream. This is unnecessary, as the matter comes wholly under the jurisdiction of the United States authorities, and it is understood, is being looked after by them. The river and harbor act of Sept. 19, 1890, in section 6, makes ample provision for bringing the Cloquet offenders to justice.

A fund has been subscribed by those interested and a representative has been sent to Madison to work against the Weyerhaeuser bill closing Iron river, information as to which was first given the public in The Herald last Monday. It is hoped to defeat the bill.

Let's see, when did the prophets say navigation would open?

Five Amethysts Discovered.
Port Arthur, Scotland: Henry Gernard yesterday brought down from the Murillo mine one of the handsomest and most unique specimens ever seen in this district. It is a hollow stone of an oval shape, about two feet long and a foot in diameter. The outside glitters with iron pyrites while the inside is lined with a beautiful coating of amethyst. It weighs about 100 pounds and makes a handsome ornament.

A Young Girl's Grief
At seeing her charms of face and form departing and her health imperiled by functional irregularities, at her critical period of life, was turned to joy and gratitude after a brief self-treatment with Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It purified and enriched her blood, gave a healthy activity to the kidneys, stomach, bowels and other organs, and her return to robust health speedily followed. It is the only medicine for women, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee from the manufacturers, that it will give satisfaction in every case, or money will be refunded. This guarantee has been printed on the bottle wrapper, and faithfully carried out for many years.

Why let the little ones suffer with rheumatism when twenty-five cents will buy a bottle of Salvation Oil?

The Prostrating Shoocks
Of malaria fever are not to be counteracted by quinine with any degree of certainty, or for any length of time. The eradication and prevention of diseases of a miasmatic type are, however, ascertained possibilities. Long experience has shown that there is infinitely more preventive efficacy in the fine botanic medicine, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, than in the alkaloids, drugs and poisons which were formerly only recognized means of removing and anticipating attacks of fever and ague and bilious remittent. When the system has been depleted by periodically recurring paroxysms, this agreeable restorative renews the fund of energy, and is not only a positive specific, but repairs the damage to the general health inflicted by all febrile complaints partaking of the malarial character.

SEEN AND HEARD.

A few weeks ago I was able, by the kindness of a friend in Winter Park, Florida, to give some examples of sweetness and light blushing unseen in the person of a South Florida editor, making in this column of The Herald copious extracts from the Winter Park Advocate. I can now, by the greatly appreciated kindness of the same friend, add to the gems published then. There have been a number of interesting events at Winter Park in the past few weeks, among them the opening of the college gymnasium, a wedding, as usual the most brilliant in years, and the celebration of Washington's birthday.

"Those who witnessed the exercises Saturday, in honor of George Washington, were benefited from them. Saturday nearly 1000 turned out in full to enjoy the fun which had been so elaborately prepared for their enjoyment. Not a wheel was left unturned nor anything to impede the success. At 10 o'clock the tennis tournament began, and from then until afternoon day did the tennis balls fly to-and fro. The tournament was live and interesting to the 100 or more spectators who eyed the participants so eagerly. The grandest pole was so hard to climb as a fellow walking on his head, was won by Edward Gray. It will be remembered that Gray won the grandest pole prize last year. Foot race was another interesting feature of the day's proceedings and Gray captured that prize also. Well all knew he would win it because of the keenness of his last year's performance. There was a very full feature owing to the fact that there was not but one man wrestling. That prize was won by Wm. H. Smith."

"After the above exercises had been completed, the Right Hon. C. Gairy branched off with such rhetoric as had never before been witnessed in Winter Park. The speaker said: 'I am proud to be here with you today to talk about some of our fathers. I tell you I was a great man. I was your father and my father was born over 100 years ago in the great American State, was raised up with a heart full for a month. What did Washington do? Washington did not set down as a great man of you is doing. Washington went out and look a man he searched for the best of the United States. Washington fought a hero and freed us from the chains after he executed these American States. When George Washington died of whole country was without a leader. It was 80 years ago and yet we've lived. I am none of your educated men and of I was I would do a great deal more for my country than any of you fellows is doing.' Here the speaker got off in such high tone language that our reporter failed to keep further track of his speech. He was eying the lips of the speaker."

"Miss Ella C. Davis, of Harlem, is the little pet at the Seminole hotel. She is a most charming young Miss. She was on last Thursday evening prettiest she ever was when she wore a white tulle dress and wreaths of orange blossoms. But the prettiest of all is when she smiles and a dimple in each side of her cheeks will make its appearance."

"The Seminole hotel barber is said to be practicing to appear before the guest in an Italian Opera scene for his expenses to N. Y. Hope him success and we shall try and be present and take the proceedings."

Referring to the dedication of a small gymnasium in the local college the editor says: "Hundreds of people, and the college students especially have found pleasurable events within its walls and thousands of performances to exercise the muscle have been carried on there. In the name of the charitable giver will be engraved on the pages of history, never to be blotted out; written upon the minds of every student of Rollins College, there to remain as long as life exists in their bodies. The gymnasium will stand as a monument to its giver until its frame shall go back to dust."

I shall hope to give a few more extracts from the Advocate in a few days.

Chances.

Of all men on the earth, the American is the most hopeful, energetic and self-reliant. As he would phrase it, he is a "hunter," and all he wants is a chance. But the United States is now, more than ever, a country of good chances and great opportunities, not alone in the West, but South and Southwest. The Mississippi valley, the Rocky Mountain regions, the golden Pacific Coast and the sunny plains of the South, are full of chances for ambitious young men, who are not afraid to work hard. To visit any of these sections of our country, "The Burlington" has long been the favorite route, reaching as it does the most important points in nine of the best states and territories in the center of the continent, and by connecting lines being the short and direct route to all points, from Puget Sound to the Gulf of Mexico. Wherever you think of going, apply first for tickets to some agent of "The Burlington," or write for information to W. J. C. Koryon, Gen. Pass. Agent, C. B. & N. R. R., St. Paul, Minn.

A Contract Signed for Sept. 28 at Temple Opera.

A contract has been signed for the appearance here on Sept. 28 of Sara Bernhardt. She will play at Temple Opera in "Cleopatra" on her return from San Francisco and Portland. It is possible that the date may be put a day or two later, as the management has taken into consideration an extra evening on the coast and the contingencies of travel.

Manager Haycock had Lawrence Barrett booked for the same evening and had it not been for his sudden death, Duluth would probably have more on her hands for that evening than she could well take care of.

A SUGAR SCRAMBLE

Excitement Among Chicago Wholesale Grocers Today Arent the Free Sugar Question.

Confectioners Over the Country are the Heaviest Losers by the Drop.

Twelve Thousand Tons of Hawaiian Sugar Arrives in San Francisco.

Chicago, March 31.—The free sugar clause of the tariff bill comes into effect at 12 o'clock tonight and tomorrow morning over 150,000 barrels of sugar will be thrown on the market in Chicago. For over a month past the custom house officers have been busy making arrangements for the release of this immense quantity. It was found necessary to secure and bond twelve temporary warehouses, and even then the cars at the railroad depots had to be bonded.

Collector Clark will open his office at midnight for the accommodation of merchants and the issuance of the necessary papers for the release of the sugar will be at once commenced. Long before daylight a scramble will have begun and the scenes will rival those witnessed some years ago when coffee went on the free list.

The removal of the duty from sugar will involve confectioners throughout the country in considerable loss. Notwithstanding the fact that the candy men have made every possible effort without reducing prices to reduce their stocks, it is said that some of them in this city have on hand at least $30,000 in goods that are affected, and the total loss in depreciation throughout the country will be enormous.

The Northwestern confectioners will endeavor to maintain prices, as they say that any attempt at a cut will prove ruinous. Of late retail dealers have refused to replenish their stocks in anticipation of a reduction in prices. Although the McKinley bill puts sugar on the free list, the tariff on many of the other materials used in the manufacture of candy has been greatly increased. All the price of labor has also advanced as a result of the recent strike of candy makers. These causes will combine to make the reduction considerably less than had been anticipated.

Advices from San Francisco say that the British steamer Sussex has arrived from Honolulu with a cargo of sugar. All the tramp vessels are now in and between them they have brought over 12,000 tons of sugar. It is expected that a large number of other sugar ships will arrive before tomorrow night.

CATHOLIC GATHERING.

Preparation for Writing a History of the Catholic Church.

PHILADELPHIA, March 31.—A number of eminent Catholics arrived in this city this morning. Among them are Cardinal Gibbons, Governor General Lee Carroll of Maryland, Rev. Ignatius F. Horstman, D. D., Rev. T. C. Middleton, O. S. A. D., and Hon. Richard O'Gorman of New York. They are here to attend a convention in the interest of Catholic history which opens in the Academy of Music this evening under the auspices of the American Catholic Historical Society.

The principal object of the conference is the preparation of a history of the Catholic Church. The gathering is a concerted effort to collect and take care of the documents necessary for the future writing of a complete history of the Roman Catholic Church. The gathering promises to be one of the most notable ever held by Catholics in this city.

MARY WASHINGTON'S TOMB.

End of the Contest to Sell the Property.

FREDERICKSBURG, Va., March 30.—The contest over the ownership of the land where Mary Washington, mother of George Washington, is buried, ended this evening with a verdict in favor of George W. Shepard. The case began when Mr. Shepard, who owns the ground on which the tomb is situated, gave to Colbert & Kelley, real estate brokers, an option on the property. The case began when Mr. Shepard notified the brokers that he could not give a clear title to the ground. Thereupon they withdrew the advertisement and initiated suit for $20,000 damages. There have been several hand-to-hand encounters in court while this case was being tried. The decision today puts an end to the squabble.

DISCOVERS A COMET.

Professor Barnard Adds Another to His Already Brilliant Record.

MOUNT HAMILTON, Cal., March 31.—Professor Barnard, of the Lick observatory, discovered a small, fairly bright comet last night. Its tail is 15 minutes long. At 8 hours and 35 minutes its position was right ascension 1 hour and 10 minutes, 10 seconds north, declination 44 degrees 48 minutes. The comet is moving rapidly southward in the direction of the sun 1 degree a day. This makes the thirteenth comet discovered by Professor Barnard.

English Works to be Issued Here.

LONDON, March 31.—Walter Besant, William Black, and others are discussing the formation of a society of English authors and copyright owners with the view of establishing or securing control of a printing house in the United States. The Athenaeum refers to the scheme as an indispensable preliminary to any attempt to derive advantage from the American copyright act.

Libelers Look Out.

New York, March 31.—The board of directors of the Mechanics and Trades bank has adopted a resolution offering a reward of $500 for evidence sufficient to convict the parties to a libelous and unfounded rumor regarding the bank's affairs.

C. H. Graves & Co. are offering special inducements to parties wishing to build in Endon.

THE POLICE OBJECT.

But an Injunction Has Been Served on Them.

TAOR, N. Y., March 31.—The managers of both sides positively declare that the glove contest between George Dixon and Cal McCarthy for $50,000 offered by the City club of this city will take place tonight. This is in the face of the resolution passed by the police commissioners directing Superintendent Willard to prevent this fight or any other.

FOR COAST DEFENSE.

Boats Make a Big Inland Passage Along the Coast.

CHARLESTON, March 30.—The United States revenue steamer Morrill arrived at Charleston this morning having made an inland passage all the way up from North Edisto river. The fact is deemed of great importance from a military point of view, as it has demonstrated the ability of war vessels, drawing no more than ten feet of water, to navigate the waters of the southern coast from Philadelphia to Fernandina, save for a small stretch lying between Moultrie City and Charleston.

Congressional Contest.

JAMESTOWN, N. Y., March 31.—Hiram Smith, democratic candidate for congress, has filed with the clerk of the house of representatives his intention to contest the election of William B. Hooker, who holds a certificate of election for representative of the Thirty-second district. The charge made is that Hooker procured his election by bribing voters in the primaries and in the convention. The Thirty-second is a republican in a large majority and it is hardly possible that Smith can win.

The Crosby Obsequies.

NEW YORK, March 31.—Dr. Crosby's funeral will take place tomorrow. The private services at the house will be held at 2 o'clock. The Rev. CHICAGO EXPERTS.

They Explain Some Puzzling Matters in Connection With City Water Analysis.

As Made by Professors Selgwick and Drown, of the Massachusetts Institute.

City Sends an Engineer to Grand Lake to Get Samples of Water.

The following letter from Wahl & Henius, of the scientific station for brewing of Chicago, to Fitter & Co., of this city, regarding the recent analysis of Duluth city water in the Boston Institute of Technology, copies of which have been sent them, will be of interest to Duluth readers. The communication contains points which seem to throw light on the causes of increase and decrease of typhoid fever. The analysis by Wahl & Henius of Feb. 2, published exclusively in The Herald, showing sewerage contamination, was made at a time when the lake was open and the currents from sewers subject to the influence of winds and other agencies. Again, the matter of taking all samples from the same system in one day may have some influence, which the letter explains very concisely.

"We have read the reports of the Duluth city water with great interest and think you for the copies of the papers containing the reports. We are glad to hear that you have better water at command than what would warrant the conclusion that Duluth city water was sufficiently pure at the times or even pure as a rule.

"The fact is that the water you sent us Feb. 2 was strongly contaminated and it would be interesting to continue the investigations to see how many days in the year the water is pure, and how many more or less impure. If there is a possibility of the sewerage contaminating the drinking water, there is also the possibility of certain favorable or unfavorable conditions such contamination will actually take place. Such a condition for instance would be a strong wind in the direction of the sewerage outlet toward the intake pipe.

"We can draw conclusions for Duluth from the experience of Chicago, we cannot but insist that the purity of the water cannot be determined from an examination of samples of water taken 'one day' if the possibility of contamination exists. Thus on many days we would find but few impurities in samples taken from the city supply in Chicago, on other days we would find large quantities of impurities. Sometimes the water is fit to drink, at other times totally unfit. For example one day we found bacteria per cubic centimeter, while on another day we found over 100,000 per cubic centimeter, this contamination being necessarily attributable to the access of sewerage. At that time typhoid was raging in this city and it seemed probable that the water was the cause. Examinations for typhoid bacilli, however, were unsuccessful, but we found great quantities of typhoid bacilli in the water, which carried on their way into the access of sewerage. CHAMBER AND COUNCIL.

The County Fee System and Other Legislative Matters Warmly Discussed Today in the Chamber.

Council Gets a Stuck on the West Superior Sand Stables by a New Ordinance.

Annual Statements of the City's Finances Made by Treasurer and Comptroller.

The principal topic before the chamber of commerce this morning was pending legislation. A communication was read from Senator Daugherty acknowledging the receipt of the chamber's petition regarding bills affecting the rates of interest. It is expressed fears that should the bills pass, the governor might sign them.

The news agent of the Northern Pacific asked for a birds eye view of Duluth which he offered to publish in his next tourist guide free of charge. Secretary Thompson gave a brief report of his trip to St. Paul in the interest of the private bank and other bills. Representative Kinney was reported as opposed to the bank measure, but Senator Daugherty had introduced the bill and would push the matter. The Kniffler Five, however, will also be introduced.

The St. Louis delegation had also received a copy of the petition asking for the appropriation to aid in the Winchell geological survey. The fee bill was then taken under consideration and discussed at length. It was the sense of the chamber that every effort should be rendered in aid of its passage. A committee of three, headed by Mayor Bidwell, was appointed to visit St. Paul and urge the St. Louis delegation to work in its behalf. It came out during the discussion that there is an organization, consisting of most of the county officials in the state, who meet in St. Paul during every session of the legislature. This organization has brought some strong pressure to bear against any measure which places county officers on salary. Hennepin county, however, has succeeded in passing such a bill and it is possible St. Louis may do so well. The matter of the union of the independent school districts of West Duluth, with that of Duluth was considered favorably. E. R. Brice was elected a member and the chamber went into executive session.

THE COUNCIL.

It Takes Important Action on Bond Matters.

At the council meeting last evening the chief business was the introduction of a resolution authorizing the selling of $200,000 in temporary bonds, without advertising, at 4 percent for two years. An offer has been made by a New York firm for the bonds and they will be sold at once. The State bank, Bank of Commerce, Security bank and American Bank, and Trust company were accepted as depositories of the city money, each to furnish bonds in the sum of $100,000. City Attorney Allen prepared an ordinance to prevent the selling of sand off Park Point. It was rushed through to its third reading and passed.

Amending the fire escape ordinance was also passed.

Plans for improvement of Sixth avenue west from Railroad street to the south end were approved and the board of works authorized to advertise for bids. The grade is to be filled in with earth and paved forty-two feet wide. The St. Paul & Duluth filed an acceptance of the modified plans for the Lake avenue viaduct. The street railway company asked to have a committee of the council confer with its officers concerning rails and electrical construction to be used in its extensions this season. M. R. Baldwin wants to add a third story to his building at 107-110 First avenue west and wants the fire limit ordinance suspended in his case. The board of works was authorized to purchase another street sweeper.

West enders petitioned for the appointment of E. Olson as street commissioner for that part of town. Minnesota Point owners petitioned that the water front lots be exempted from extension of the fire limits. The Ladies Relief society petitioned for the appointment of a police matron. The fire commissioners asked to be authorized to erect an engine house on one of the cross streets on Park Point and to buy a team of horses and chemical City Attorney Allen called the attention of the council to the fact that the resolution changing the limits of the proposed improvements of Garfield avenue might invalidate the assessments. The mayor sent in the appointment of C. W. Wilson as a member of the fire commission.

City Comptroller Ten Brook and City Treasurer Voss presented their annual reports up to February 15.

The comptroller's report shows that the present bonded indebtedness is $936,650 and that the limit of indebtedness under present assessed valuation is $1,183,332. There are at present vouchers outstanding to the amount of $124,717.04. The tables following show the disbursements of the several funds for the year:

General fund disbursements	$10,047.76
Balance on hand	10,512.76
Permanent improvement fund	30,341.00

THE SAULT BREAK.

General Poe Talks of the Trouble at the Lock.

Gen. O. M. Poe gives a Detroit reporter the following account of the recent Sault break and its probable results:
"The stream when discovered was about the size of a man's hand, and there was much difficulty in locating it, but at last by listening it was heard running under the snow. Thursday it came with a rush, entirely filling the lock-pit to the depth of forty feet, submerging the machinery of the contractors and flowing out of the lock-pit at the lower end where the dam is five feet high. The lock-pit filled in about ten hours after the rush set in, and now contains about 50,000,000 gallons of water.

"The crib-work of the dam is intact, it being uninjured so far as we can see, but for fifty feet all the clay has been washed out and there is an immense hole under the crib-work. The dam is built on a rock bottom, where piles could not be driven, and consists of parallel lines of crib-work, the cribs filled with stones and supporting or shielding the dam proper, which consists of an eight-foot bank of clay. The cribs are each twenty feet wide and, with the clay middle section, make a structure forty-eight feet in width. The depth of water which has occurred is 23.9 feet. At that depth it would be impossible to notice any small deposit of silt or gravel, and it was doubtless through such a deposit that the water worked its way. All the men and teams available were at once set to work hauling clay, but bags of clay and bales of hay thrown into the break were washed through like corks. A pile-driver was then procured and 2 by 12 planks driven along inside the inner crib. These caught the hay and clay and about half the inflow was stopped. We endeavored to continue the work of sheet piling, but the men met with some hard substance, and although shod with iron, the piles were broken. We are driving 12 by 12 square timbers, sharp-pointed and shod with iron.

"I can't tell anything about the outlook. I am candidly that it is a very serious matter. It is no child's play and will draw on all our resources to stop the leak. Of course, the loss falls wholly on the government. When the break first occurred the pressure was 1800 pounds to the square foot. The difference in the water level of the canal and lock-pit is 13 feet, and the bottom of the crib is 19 feet below the surface of the water in the lock-pit. I hope this trouble will not delay navigation, but I am conceive of what would be a very disastrous condition of affairs should the worst come to pass."

Died.

Mrs. Isabel Brotherton, aged 82 years, died yesterday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. C. Eyster, 1831 East First street. Short funeral services were held at the house at 2 p. m. today, at which many friends were present. The body will be taken to Chambersburg, Pa., for burial. Mrs. Brotherton was well known and greatly loved by very many of the older residents of Duluth.

A New Line.

In the rapid development of the great Northwest and consequent exchange of freight and passenger traffic between it and Michigan, Canada and the East, the Detroit, St. Paul and Mackinac Island railroad deserve prominence.

Two lines of steamers are operated all the year between Manitowish and Milwaukee, Wis., and Ludington, Mich. (once called Pere Marquette). From Ludington the road extends across Michigan to Port Huron, Detroit and Toledo, Ohio, intersecting roads running to the straits with lower rates of freight and lower passenger fares than all rail lines.

Write St. Paul Agency for any information desired.
